

CLIENT ALERT: United States Department of Labor Updates Two Posters - By Jeffrey S. Siegel

The United States Department of Labor recently issued new workplace posters for employers. As of August 1, 2016, covered employers must update their Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") minimum wage poster and Federal Employee Polygraph Protection Act ("EPPA") poster. As with most employment posters, employers must post a copy of each updated poster in a conspicuous place within the workplace. Employers should also remove previous versions of these posters and replace them with the newer versions.

The DOL poster updates should remind employers to verify that they are posting all mandated federal, state, and local workplace posters. For more information on workplace poster requirements, please contact your MBJ attorney.

Jeffrey S. Siegel is a partner at Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP. He may be reached at (617) 523-6666 or at jsiegel@morganbrown.com. Jeff is admitted to practice law in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP focuses exclusively on representing employers in employment and labor matters.

This alert was originally published on August 29, 2016.

This publication, which may be considered advertising under the ethical rules of certain jurisdictions, should not be construed as legal advice or a legal opinion on any specific facts or circumstances by Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP and its attorneys. This newsletter is intended for general information purposes only and you should consult an attorney concerning any specific legal questions you may have.